The meeting was called to order at 4:01 p.m. by Patrick Kerr - Vice-Chair

I. Administration
   A. Adoption of Agenda
      The agenda was approved by acclamation

   B. Review and Approval of the September 26th, 2013 Meeting Minutes
      The meeting minutes were approved by acclamation

      Jim Savitt and Jackson Schmidt entered in at 4:02p.m.

II. Public Comment Including the Market Community
    Howard Aller asked the Council to not consider the combining of the Finance Committee and Asset Management Committee meetings.

    Joan Paulson distributed a proposed letter from the Market Constituency regarding the Seattle City Light Charges; this letter was included with the meeting minute’s record. She briefly commented on the status of the Viaduct and Government affairs including information on the repair of the Viaduct and cost overruns.

    Bo Novak commented on the issue of wanting a specific space in the Market and not being able to get the space. Patrick Kerr asked Bo Novak to bring this issue to the December Asset Management Committee meeting.

III. Reports and Information Items
    A. Council Chair Report
       The Chair was not present for the Council meeting; there was not a Council Chair Report.

    B. Executive Director’s Report
       Ben Franz-Knight presented the Executive Director’s Report for the month of October. He noted that there was a written report that was included in the Full Council packet. He reported that there will be a special public meeting held this Monday regarding comments on the 2014 Proposed Budget; this would follow the PDA Council approval of the 2014 Budget at the November 19th Full Council meeting. He provided a brief report on the Pike Place Market Atrium Kitchen, noting that we expect to see the kitchen completed by mid-November. He informally introduced the new PDA Security Manager Randy Stegmeier and distributed a copy of the PPM PDA Emergency and Preparedness Plan. He lastly provided an update with the status with Seattle City Light regarding the increased electricity rates. There was mutual conclusion from the recent meeting with Seattle City Light which included the flowing: The demand charges that are directly related to the consolidated meters in the Market have resulted in increased costs to the Market around $80k to 100k, including increased costs going forward. There was mutual agreement from the recent meeting with City Light that the administrative level at Seattle City Light does not feel that they have the ability to adjust our rate schedule and charges for the Market. He discussed the next steps which included opening direct conversations with Seattle City Council to seek some sort of recognition for the Market as a unique venue.

Jim Savitt inquired about the aggregated amount on the incurred charges from Seattle City Light.

Rico Quirindongo entered in at 4:13p.m.

IV. Key Issues Presentation
   A. PPM-WE Schematic Design Presentation - Canopy Progress Update
   David Miller from Miller Hull presented the Pike Place Market Waterfront Schematic Design Canopy Progress Update. A copy of the presentation was included with the meeting minute’s record. David Miller presented a Progress update on the Plaza, including studying options for canopies for the rooftop terrace areas. He discussed Goals and Principles for the Connection to Down Under which included: direct connection to the Down Under from the Waterfront Entrance Project, improve pedestrian experience along Western Avenue, weather protected pathway, minimizing impact on residential units, minimizing view blockage and connecting the Pike Place Market retail experience. David also gave an overview on Goals and Principles for the Canopies which included: de-coupling from the Desimone Bridge, creation on an independent space. Activation of roof deck, maximizing flexibility, maintaining essential views, minimizing view blockages, potential tear-round coverage, space for special events and priority use for Daystall vendors with an emphasis on food products.

   David Miller discussed two approaches for the Canopies on the Plaza. Approach One was Low Profile, including Pop-Up modular cells and collective walls and roofs. Approach Two was High Profile, including a tent, Grand Hall, Cable structure and fewer columns. He noted that both of the Canopy approaches would share similar goals. He added that we have studied some fabric solutions that could be deployed in a short amount of time for the Canopy structures. He lastly reported that we are looking at a system in which we could set up in a short amount of time with varying types of coverage.

   There was a discussion that followed.

   Patrick Kerr inquired about cost estimates for the plaza and canopy structure.

   Bruce Burger inquired about the effects of wind on the rooftop plaza and the canopies.

   David Miller noted that the increased prevention of wind elements on the Rooftop Plaza would most likely require more structure on the Plaza.
B. Farm Strategy Presentation

Kelly Lindsay presented on Farm Program 2013 Summary and Next Steps. A copy of the presentation was included with the meeting minute’s record. She discussed Program Goals for the Farm Strategy which included the following objectives: Enhancing farmer profitability, increasing farmer participation in the Market, increasing customer base to support farmers, leveraging the Market brand to support farm and food initiatives, establishing the Market as a partner in food and farm issues, support the preservation of and access to affordable farmland and identifying actionable polices and program for the PDA. She gave an overview of the 2013 Programs which included the changes to Daystall Rules to expand selling opportunities for foragers, artisan producers, value added production and doubling, the addition of the Pioneer Square Express Market, the added VISTA staffing with focus on food access programs, the participation with the citywide EBT match program “Fresh Bucks;,” “Farm-to-Go” marketing promotion and City and County partnerships. Kelly reviewed the 2013 Program Results, along with the 2014 Actionable Programs and Strategic Direction. She concluded her presentation with a review of Proposed Resolution 13-65: Approval of Strategic Direction for Development of Farm Aggregation Programs by the Council.

I. Action Item: Proposed Resolution 13-65: Approval of Strategic Direction for Development of Farm Aggregation Programs

Kelly Lindsay introduced the resolution which states that on October 7th, 1907 the Seattle City Council adopted ordinance No. 17187 establishing Pike Place as a public market for the sale of “fresh fruits, vegetables, berries and other farm and garden products, and accept also butter, eggs, cheese, poultry, meats, lard and preserved fruit and vegetables raised, produced or manufactured by the person selling or offering the same for sale”, and; WHEREAS, the PDA Charter states: “the PDA, as a public trustee with the mission to ensure that the traditional character of the Public Market is preserved, is authorized to perform renewal, rehabilitation, preservation, restoration, development, and non-profit management of structures and open spaces in the above-described areas in a manner that affords a continuing opportunity for Public Market farmers, merchants, residents, shoppers, and visitors to carry on their tradition of market activities. In addition to upgrading structures and public amenities in and around the Market Historical District, the PDA will initiate programs to expand food retailing in the Market Historical District, especially the sale of local farm produce...”; and, WHEREAS, Council Resolution 13-12 identified “increasing farmer profitability and farmer participation in the Pike Place Market” as a goal, including “strategy f - Development of alternative revenue streams for Pike Place Market farmers through direct sales, aggregation or wholesaling opportunities”; and,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED,
The PDA identifies the following strategic direction for development of alternate revenue sources for Market farmers. These programs will be focused specifically on the two following areas with options further developed and analyzed by staff in 2014:

- Direct to Consumer: subscription and daily purchase CSA models, SNAP / low income produce delivery and the development of a value-added produce from combined farm produce.
- Wholesale: social service agencies, Market restaurants, other restaurants, institutions, grocery, and distributors.

Analysis of which shall include the following considerations for evaluating opportunities for aggregation and wholesaling:

- Ongoing operational needs – staff and operations
- Benefits to existing farmers vs. recruiting new farmers
- Produce grading procedures / quality control
- Pricing / profit margin to farmers
- Minimize waste / consistent demand; and,
AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED,

Actionable programs to be implemented in 2014 will include:

- SNAP / low income produce delivery
- One discrete value-added product development
- Wholesale to Market social service agencies
- Continuation of the “Farm to Go” tote (pending analysis of 2013 program)

Farm Program staff shall update the PDA Council annually on the results of existing programs and make recommendations for the development and implementation of new programs, including Direct to Consumer and Wholesaling programs, with any additional staff allocations or program expenses for inclusion in the 2015 annual budget planning process.

Betty Halfon moved, David Ghoddousi seconded

There was a discussion that followed regarding the resolution language.

Betty Halfon would like to see specific measurable results with the 2014 Proposed Farm Programs.

Bruce Burger noted that at Market Programs there should be discussions on measurable goals for 2014 regarding the Farm Program.

There was a friendly amendment from Jim Savitt which included the insertion of language under the third bullet of the last “Be it Resolved Statement” as “Wholesale to Market social service agencies and to Market restaurants”. He also included an amendment to the last paragraph of the resolution which included the added language at the beginning of the paragraph “Provided that expenditures on these programs shall not exceed amounts allocated to them in the approved 2014 Operating Budget”

Betty Halfon and David Ghoddousi accepted the friendly amendment.

The Consent agenda passed unanimously.

Ben Franz-Knight introduced the resolution which states that the Pike Place Market Preservation and Development Authority (PDA) is the owner of all rights, title, and interest in and to certain trademarks and graphical representations of the Pike Place Market name and trademark; an WHEREAS, Lantern Press desires to renew their license to make use of the Pike Place Market design mark (Public Market Center sign as depicted on the PDA trademark license application) and the name Pike Place Market in connection with souvenir and gift products sold at local stores, on their website, and through other online businesses for a 2 year term; and, WHEREAS, PPMPDA and Lantern Press have agreed that in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Lantern Press may use the Pike Place Market name and design mark on souvenir and gift products, which are made on demand when ordered; and, WHEREAS, Lantern Press agrees that it will not during the 2 year term of this Agreement, or thereafter, challenge the title or ownership of the PDA to the name or trademark or challenge the validity of this Agreement; and, WHEREAS, Lantern Press agrees that it will use the terms and images related to Pike Place Market and the licensed name and trademarks in a way that will reflect positively on the Pike Place Market. The PDA will approve or disapprove of any potential design or marketing plans involving the marks, likenesses or trademarked name(s) owned by the Pike Place Market PDA in relation to Lantern Press and all related marketing of such; and, WHEREAS, Lantern Press agrees to pay the PDA 9% of gross sales for all licensed items sold during this 2 year agreement (with semi-annual reporting and payment, with dates specified in the agreement) and a $250 Start-Up Fee due upon signing of the Trademark Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the PDA Council authorizes the Executive Director or her representative to execute a non-exclusive trademark licensing agreement with Lantern Press for the use of the Pike Place Market name and trademarks for souvenir and gift products.

Jackson Schmidt moved, Bruce Burger seconded.

There was a discussion that followed.

John Finke noted his concerns regarding approving Proposed Resolution 13-64.

Jackson Schmidt noted that we may need to revisit our Trademark Guidelines and suggested that the PDA Council revisit the policy.

Bruce Burger moved to amend the resolution by the insertion of “The PDA will approve or disapprove of any potential design, specific product or marketing plans involving the marks, likenesses...” under paragraph five.

Bruce Burger moved the amendment, Jim Savitt seconded the motion.
